Dear Mr. Sommers:

When I got home last evening, 29 December, 2005, there was a letter there sent from you dated 7 December, 2005 which was left by Daniel Alcorn. The statements contained in such letter about President Castro are not correct. Indeed, they are wrong. I have never met, talked to, or been in Mr. Castro's presence and I had no such direction to do so by Mr. Chief Justice Earl Warren.

To reiterate, anything said in your letter of 7 December 2005 about Mr. Chief Justice Earl Warren, me or about Mr. Castro in re any meeting with or talk to Mr. Castro is incorrect; indeed, is wrong.

Very truly yours,

William T. Coleman, Jr., Esq.
